

Cascade Columbia Fisheries Enhancement Group presents

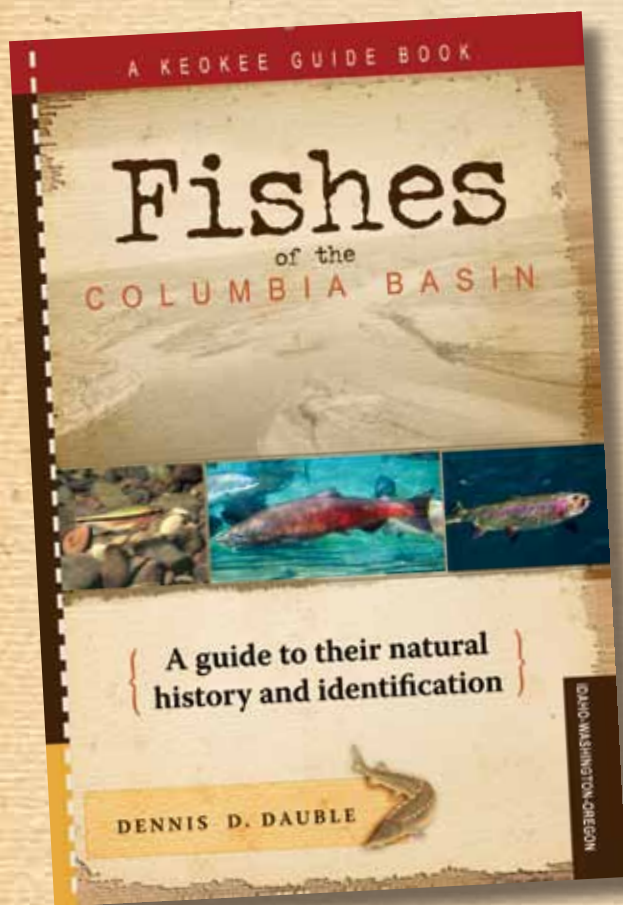

Author Dennis Dauble

History of Fish and Fishing in the Columbia Basin

Thursday, March 15 @ 6:30 p.m.

Twisp Grange

344 W. 2nd Avenue, Twisp, WA 509-997-0771

Join author Dennis Dauble for a Humanities Washington Inquiring Minds presentation. Event is free and open to the public.

Dennis Dauble, a longtime Northwest resident and expert in regional fish and waterways, presents the history of fish and fishing in North Central Washington and Columbia Basin. Dennis will address historic fishing practices of local tribes, speak to the impact of white settlement on aquatic resources, and also discuss contemporary conflicts between our public values and resource management policies. Dennis is intimately acquainted with our local watersheds and will speak on issues that should be important and fun for any angler or resident of the area. Dennis will also be appearing at Wenatchee River Institute at Barn Beach Reserve in Leavenworth March 16 at 7 p.m. He will be staying after to sign copies of his award-winning book.
